2007 CCSW Outstanding Community Service Award

Nominations due by February 28, 2008

Nominees for the annual Chancellor's Commission on the Status of Women (CCSW) Community Service Award have brought attention to UNO regarding women's issues and/or advanced women's issues through any and all of the following: advising, mentoring, or education, service, presentations, publications, research; or other leadership activities. Please limit this information to no more than two pages.

The nominee may be any profit or non-profit organization (other exemplary individuals may be considered). The nominator is responsible for including two to four letters of other documentation of support with the application. Past recipients may be nominated after a period of five years.

Name of Institution or Corporation_____

Please list your specific reasons for nominating this institution or corporation:

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Is the advancement of women's issues an on-going function of this institution's goals?
Yes _____ No _____

Past Recipients

1991 US West Communications
1992 The Women's Development Center
1993 Cox Cable Omaha, Inc.
1994 Pepsi-Cola of Omaha
1995 Hy-Vee Food Stores, Inc.
1996 First National Bank
1997 Sears
1998 Lozier
1999 Cal Energy, Inc.
2000 ICAN, Inc.
2002 First Data Resources
2004 Union Pacific
2005 Omaha Business and Professional Women
2006 Girls, Incorporated of Omaha
2007 Omnium

Please attach any additional information, news clips, support letters, examples of campus and other service and activities, etc. and return to Dr. Jeanne Harrington, KH 522D, jeanneharrington@unomaha.edu by February 28, 2008.