Assessment webinars will be very interactive with a short set of presentations, each followed by Q&A discussion.

March 14 webinar will focus on basic definitions, vocabulary, and the relationship between assessment and teaching and learning.

March 16 webinar topics will include mechanics, approaches, and alternatives.

Two options to attend:

- Physical presence at Roskens Hall Room 503
  (Accommodate approximately 15-20 audio interactive available for participants)

- WebEx at https://unocollab.webex.com/join/pwolcott
  (Remote participants can interact via “Chat” in WebEx)

~ Book discussion of Suskie’s book prior to the webinars –

Assessing Student Learning: A Common Sense Guide

Individuals planning to attend both webinars may receive a complimentary copy of the book by contacting the Center for Faculty Excellence at unofacdev@unomaha.edu

Chapter 7 - Organizing an Assessment Process
Chapter 10 - Creating an Effective Assignment
These chapters will be the focus of the book discussion