

2023 Library Friends Distinguished Service Award Recipients

UNO LIBRARY FRIENDS

The UNO Library Friends' primary purpose is to support and advocate for the Dr. C.C. and Mabel L. Criss Library. Members recognize the vital role the library plays in community service, lifelong learning, teaching, and research. The Friends are committed to enriching the quality of UNO's library services and resources.

The UNO Library Friends support the library and its patrons, including students, faculty, staff, and community users, by contributing to library projects, increasing awareness and viability, and enhancing the library's image.

WHAT WE DO

Library Friends provide financial support for the library collections, events, and services that are not available through public funding sources.

UNO Library Friends...

- Create community awareness and use of the Dr. C.C. and Mabel L. Criss Library
- Sponsor or co-sponsor lectures, readings, exhibits, or other public events that enrich the UNO community
- Provide recognition for outstanding services performed by library staff members and students
