HONORS AND AWARDS COMMITTEE

Del and Lou Ann Weber Award of Excellence

Dear Colleague:

The Del and Lou Ann Weber Award of Excellence recognizes a faculty member or administrator at the University of Nebraska at Omaha who has rendered outstanding professional service to the community, state or nation. The award is accompanied by a stipend of $2,000 and is presented by the chancellor at the annual Service Awards luncheon in June.

The UNO Honors and Awards Committee strive to select honorees who reflect the diversity and excellence of our faculty and staff. It can do so only with your help in the nomination process. Please take a moment to reflect on people with whom you work and appraise their merit as Weber Award nominees. Many staff and faculty in our academic community provide significant community service that is valued and should be recognized.

This year's deadline for nominations is May 10, 2006.

Thank you for your nomination!

Lanyce Keel
Committee Chair

CRITERIA

1. The Del and Lou Ann Weber Award of Excellence recognizes an individual from the University of Nebraska at Omaha who provides outstanding professional service at the local, regional or national level. "Professional service" shall refer to work that is related to the recipient's professional expertise and academic and/or administrative discipline.
2. The recipient of the award shall demonstrate success in extending the intellectual resources of the university beyond the campus by providing leadership, professional expertise or information to address important and relevant issues.
3. The award shall be limited to a current full-time faculty member or administrator.

PROCEDURE

1. Nominations should be sent to the Honors and Awards Committee. Nominations will be reviewed for the current year ONLY and will not be carried forward to the next year. Should a nominee not be chosen as a recipient, s/he can be re-nominated again. Nominees who are approved by a majority of the Committee on Honors and Awards are forwarded to the Chancellor's Cabinet.
