

Spencer Davis
Professor of History
Peru State College
Peru, NE. sdavis@oakmail.peru.edu
(402) 872-3815

Curriculum Vita

Education:           B.A. - Brown University
                              M.A. - University of Nebraska-Lincoln
                              Ph. D - University of Toronto

Academic Position:   Professor of History
                                  Social Science Department
                                  Peru State College

Public Service:       Member of Nebraska Humanities Committee
                                  Speakers Bureau

Publications:       “James Weldon Johnson,” in Don Whisenhunt, ed., American Portraits, Vol. II. (1996).
                                  Contributor to Encyclopedia USA and Encyclopedia of Slavery. “Ma Rainey: Mother of the Blues” in Donald Whisenhunt, ed., The Human Tradition (Scholarly Resources, 2002), reprinted in other volumes 2003, 2004, 2005.

“Olaudah Equiano and His Narrative,”
                                  Proceedings of Dakota Conference on Early British Literature, (1997); “Oroonoko, Race
                                  and Slavery,” Proceedings of Dakota
                                  Conference on Early British Literature, (1998).