

UNO Goodrich Scholarship Program Application - Page 1

APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 15

APPLICATION PROCEDURES: In order to be considered for the Goodrich Program, an applicant should meet each of the following requirements by:

1. The applicant must be admitted as soon as possible to the University of Nebraska at Omaha. Our receipt of official financial aid information is delayed if applicants does not apply for admission quickly. In order to be admitted to the University of Nebraska at Omaha, an applicant must:
  - Submit an admission application, an official high-school transcript, along with a $45.00 application fee to the UNO Admissions Office, and
  - Take the American College Test (ACT) and have scores sent to the UNO Admissions Office (554-2393), and
  - Receive an official Certificate of Admission from the UNO Admissions Office when the admission process is complete.
2. The applicant must complete a Goodrich application and submit it to the Goodrich Program Office by February 15.
3. The applicant must ask two different individuals to complete and submit the Goodrich Personal Reference Form to the Goodrich Program Office. Teachers, counselors, and employers are appropriate people to ask for references. The applicant is responsible for seeing that Goodrich receives all references by April 1.
4. In order to be eligible for the scholarship, the applicant must establish financial need as determined by the UNO Financial Aid Office by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) between January 1 and March 1. The applicant must ALSO complete the College Funding Estimator, which s/he will receive from Goodrich shortly after an application has been submitted. This provides an ESTIMATE of financial need.
5. The applicant must take the English Placement/Proficiency Exam (EPPE) scheduled by the UNO Testing Center (554-4800) AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, BUT NO LATER THAN MARCH. See your counselor, or call UNO's Testing Center (554-4800) for registration dates, which begin about one month PRIOR to a testing date. You may also register on-line.
6. The applicant must arrange for a photocopy of the high-school or G.E.D. transcript to be sent to the Goodrich Program Office. (G.E.D. transcripts may be ordered from the Nebraska State Department of Education.) This is in addition to the official transcript that must be sent to UNO's admission's office.
7. The applicant must also have ACT scores sent to the Goodrich Program. If ACT scores are currently attached to the applicant's high school transcripts, separate ACT scores are not necessary.
8. Only after applicants have completed steps 1-7 will the Goodrich Program Office consider their files complete. Applicants with complete files will undergo a screening process. The screening process will determine which applicants will be scheduled for personal interviews. Final selection of Goodrich scholars will then be made on a competitive basis. No interviews will be scheduled prior to the February 15 deadline.
