

Are you interested in:

Helping people?
Creating a better community?
Making a difference?

Consider taking a course that will enable you to do these and more:

PA 3500

Nonprofit Organizations and Management

*Offered Spring 2006 Semester
1:00 – 2:15pm, Tuesdays & Thursdays*

The course will introduce students to nonprofit organizations and management.*

Topics covered include:

- Introduction to the nonprofit sector in the United States
- Nonprofit organizations in society: historical, social, economic, political and legal environments.
- Mission, ethics and accountability
- Advocacy
- Governance and leadership
- Volunteer, board, and staff development
- Planning, program development and evaluation
- Fundraising, financial, and risk management
- Preparing for a career in the nonprofit sector

GET HANDS ON EXPERIENCE!

Time each week during the semester will be spent working with a nonprofit agency to complete a special project.

*This course is required for the American Humanics Certificate in Nonprofit Management and Leadership. For more information go to: www.unomaha.edu/humanics or contact Paul Sather at 554-6019, psather@mail.unomaha.edu .