

School Library Media Program

Undergraduate School Library Media Program

Candidates working towards initial teacher certification can obtain a school library media endorsement required to direct a school library media program in P-12 schools.

Graduate School Library Media Program

Candidates with a current teaching certificate can obtain a school library media endorsement required to direct a school library media center in P-12 schools.

Graduate Degree Options with School Library Media Concentration

Candidates working on a school library media endorsement may combine school library media courses with core graduate degree courses to receive a Master's degree in the following areas:

Elementary Education
Secondary Education
Reading

School Library Media Program Requirements

Library Media Endorsement = 33 hours
(27 required hours, 6 elective hours)
Graduate course numbers in BOLD

TED 4000/8006 Special Methods in Library Media

Principles for incorporating information/technical literacy and reading competencies in school libraries

TED 4590/8596 Teaching and Learning in Digital Environments

Principles of technology integration for programming and instruction in school library media centers

TED 4650/8650 Children's Literature and Education

Literacy resources and activities for students from preschool through grade six

TED 4660/8660 Young Adult Literature and Education

Literacy resources and activities for students in middle and high school

TED 4710/8716 Reference Resources and Services

Introduces resources and services necessary for the efficient access, evaluation and use of information resources

TED 4740/8746 Cataloging and Classification

Introduction to basic cataloging and classification principles and procedures, AACRIIR standards, and records in MARC format.

TED 4760/8766 Managing Collections in Libraries and Information Agencies

Introduces concepts and principles important in the selection and evaluation of information resources

TED 4800/8806 Leadership and Management in Libraries and Information Agencies

Introduction to principles of management and administration of library and information centers

TED 4570/8520 Capstone Practicum

Series of activities synthesizing major concepts covered in School Library Media Program

Electives – 6 hours approved by advisor

Accreditation

The College of Education is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, the American Association of School Librarians, and the American Library Association.

Faculty

All library science education programs are directed by Dr. R.J. (Becky) Pasco. A broad spectrum of specializations is represented in the full-time and adjunct faculty.

For more specific information, call or write:

Dr. R.J. (Becky) Pasco
University of Nebraska at Omaha
College of Education
Kayser Hall 514G
Omaha NE 68182-0163

(402) 554-2119 or
1-800-858-8648 ext. 2119

rpasco@mail.unomaha.edu

UNO Library Science Education website:
<http://www.unomaha.edu/libraved/>

Graduate Admission Procedures

Application for admission to Graduate Studies available at:

Office of Graduate Studies
University of Nebraska at Omaha
Eppley Admin 203
Omaha NE 68182
(402) 554-2341
1-800-858-8648 ext. 2341
<http://www.unomaha.edu/graduate/>

It is VERY important to consult with Dr. Pasco regarding courses required for degrees, graduate concentrations, and endorsements to ensure a successful journey through your educational program.

The University of Nebraska at Omaha declares and affirms an admissions policy which does not discriminate because of a student's race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap or other characteristics which cannot lawfully be the basis for the provision of educational programs or related supporting services, in accordance with Board of Regents Guidelines. UNO is in compliance with provisions of the Family Education Rights & Privacy Act of 1974.

SCHOOL LIBRARY MEDIA PROGRAM

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Teacher Education Department