

Cumbre 2010

FOURTH LATINO/LATIN AMERICAN SUMMIT OF THE GREAT PLAINS
May 14-15, 2010 | Embassy Suites Downtown/Old Market | Omaha, NE

Human Mobility, the Promise of Development and Political Engagement

Office of Latino/Latin American Studies (OLLAS)

University of Nebraska at Omaha

In cooperation with the

International Network of Migration and Development (RIMD)

Friday, May 14 & Saturday, May 15

The conference is free and open to the public.

Register by May 7, 2010 @ www.unomaha.edu/ollas

Luncheon Keynote Speakers

Friday, May 14

Angelo I. Amador- Director of Immigration Policy, US Chamber of Commerce. "Immigration Reform: Why should all employers be concerned and involved?"

Saturday, May 15

Robert Suro- Annenberg School for Communication and Journalism, USC; founder and former director of the PEW Hispanic Center; a veteran journalist with the New York Times and the Washington Post. "Reimagining Migration Policies, North and South."

Saturday, May 15

Special Address: Bernardo Álvarez Herrera, Ambassador, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela. "Development, Migration and Integration: A view from Venezuela"

Invited Presentation: Rubén G. Rumbaut, UC-Irvine. "Pigments of Our Imagination: On the Racialization of "Latino" Identities and the U.S. Census"

Selected List of Presenters

Fabio Baggio, Philippines and Rome
Loren B. Landau, U. of Witwatersrand, South Africa
Binod Khadria, Jawaharlal Nehru Univ., India
Audrey Singer, Brookings Institution
Ronaldo Munck, Dublin City University, Ireland
Oscar Chacón, NALACC
Susan Gzesh, University of Chicago
Senator Dora Aguirre, Ecuador

Afternoon Keynote

Friday, May 14:

Alejandro Portes, Princeton University. "Divergent Loyalties? Transnational Organizations in the Political Incorporation of Latino Immigrants in the United States."

Migrating Melodies

Recital by a Mexican, Latin American and Nebraskan ensemble at the Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts.

Conference Themes Include:

- Education and global engagement in the era of mobility
- The development-migration links
- Immigration policy: local, national, & global
- Human rights and labor rights of migrants
- Brain drain, brain gain, and brain waste
- Precarious employment, crisis and mobility
- Faith communities and social justice
- Health disparities and health care reform
- Civic and political engagement: women, migrants, Latinos, and non-Latinos

Community Organizations Workshop (in Spanish). Latino/a and Migrant Organizations: From dependency to empowerment/ De la dependencia a la Incidencia

Please visit our website for more information and to register:
www.unomaha.edu/ollas or call OLLAS at 402.554.3835.

To see a list of sponsors visit our conference website.