LATINO ARTISTS: Exhibition & Conversations

a juried art show that explores the diverse meanings, themes, history and transnational spaces of Latino art, ideas and creativity

BANCROFT STREET MARKET
2702 SOUTH 10TH STREET • OMAHA, NEBRASKA

SEPTEMBER 18, 2015
Art exhibition opening reception

OCTOBER 2, 2015
Closing reception
with music, poetry and critical nonfiction readings

SEPTEMBER 19-OCTOBER 1, 2015
Other events
Throughout the exhibit, there will be several events including panel discussions, gallery talks, and workshops. Confirmed speakers include: Eduardo Diaz, Director of Smithsonian Latino Center, Gilberto Cárdenas, Executive Director of the Notre Dame Center for Arts and Culture, Pepe Coronado, of the Coronado Printstudio and co-founder of Dominican York Proyecto GRAFICA, and Fidencio Martinez, an MFA student at the University of Iowa.

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS
- For information about registration, guidelines or help with questions on artwork contact: latinoartinvolvement@gmail.com
- OLLAS contact is Yuriko Doku, OLLAS project coordinator, at ydoku@unomaha.edu or 402-554-3835
- Visit OLLAS online at unomaha.edu/ollas