

OLLAS

Office of Latino/Latin American Studies

Spring 2012 Class Offerings

Introduction to Latino/Latin American Studies

LLS 1000-001/099 TR 1:00-2:15pm Arbeláez
A Service Learning Course

Introduction to Chicano/Latino Studies: Social Sciences

LLS 1010-001/099 T 5:30-8:10 pm Sanchez

Introduction to Chicano/Latino Studies: Social Sciences

LLS 1010-002 TR 1:00-2:15 am Romero
Sophomore Thompson Scholars only

Introduction to Chicano/Latino Studies: Humanities

LLS 1020-001/099 TR 11:30-12:45pm Arbeláez

Introduction to Chicano/Latino Studies: Humanities

LLS 1020-002/098 TR 11:30-12:45pm Guerra
A Service Learning Course

Contemporary Topics in LLS: Urban Latin America

LLS 4910/8916-850/899 Totally Internet Mediated Celle

Since colonial times, Latin Americans have imagined their capital cities as the Nation and countryside as their pre-modern past and their burden. This course focuses on today's Latin American cities and their current socio-economic conditions/dilemmas.

For information contact:

Yuriko Doku, OLLAS Project Coordinator
ydoku@mail.unomaha.edu
402.554.3835
UNO, Arts and Sciences Hall 106 or visit www.unomaha.edu/ollas

Latino Literature

ENG 4230/8236-001 TR 2:30-3:45pm Guerra

Geography of Middle America

GEOG 3060-001 TR 6:00-7:15 pm Richter-Tate

Special Topics: Argentina, Brazil and Chile

HIST 4910-004/8916-005 R 6:00-8:40pm Arbeláez

This course introduces students to the modern history of Argentina, Brazil and Chile from the nineteenth century to the present. These countries' history diverges from other Latin American countries but share military dictatorships and return to democracy in late twentieth century.

Latin American Politics

PSCI 3680-001/091 T 6:00-8:40pm Benjamin-Alvarado

Study Abroad--Special Studies in Social Work: Nicaragua

SOWK 4890/8900-801 W 12:00-1:00pm Coyne
Class also meets in Nicaragua, May 5-15, 2012
A Service Learning Course

Survey of Latin American Literature

SPAN 3210/001 MWF 1:00-1:50 pm Frieden

Latin American Indigenous Contemporary Literature

SPAN 4960-001/8966-001 MWF 9:00 am-9:50am Garcia
A Service Learning Course