What can I do with a major in SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETING

Career Options
- Conference Interpreter
- Guide or Escort Interpreter
- Health/Medical Interpreter or Translator
- Legal Interpreter or Translator
- Literary Translator
- Sign Language Interpreter

Transferable Skills Gained
- Reflective/critical thinking
- Listening skills
- Cultural understanding
- Oral communication
- Attention to detail

Employment Areas
- Schools/Universities
- Referral Agencies
- State and Local Social Work Agencies
- Mental Health Agencies
- Hospitals
- Self-employed
- Large Corporations

Informational Websites
- UNO College of Education: goo.gl/SnR0Du
- Bureau of Labor Statistics: goo.gl/v8bGOI
- ASL Interpreter Network: aslnetwork.com
- National Association for the Deaf: nad.org
- NE Assoc. for Translators & Interpreters: natihq.org

Extracurricular Opportunities
- Get involved with Allies for Sign Language (ASL) Student Organization
- Gain experience as an interpreter through community organizations, hospitals, and events
- Complete certification offered through the National Association for the Deaf