The University of Nebraska at Omaha

Honors Program

Enrollment Highlights 2020-2021

The University Honors Program aims to provide an enhanced and supportive learning environment for exceptionally motivated and talented students.

455 total Honors Students

ACCESS TO EXCELLENCE

- 2.5 Million Dollars annually is awarded to Honors students
- 93% of Honors students receive scholarship(s)
- 2 out of every 5 Honors students have a Regents' scholarship

DIVERSITY

1 in 4 Honors students are people of color

- 1 in 3 first-year Honors students are people of color
- 1 in 4 Honors students are people of color

- 10% of Honors students have military affiliation
- Honors students excel in all colleges

- Engineering, 6%
- Information Science and Technology, 10%
- Education, Health and Human Sciences, 21%
- Communication, Fine Arts, and Media, 6%
- Public Affairs and Community Service, 5%
- Business Administration, 4%
- Arts and Sciences, 48%

The University of Nebraska does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, and/or political affiliation in its programs, activities, or employment. UNO is an AA/EEO/ADA institution. For questions, accommodations, or assistance please call/contact the Title IX/ADA/504 coordinator (phone: 402-554-3590 or TTY 402-554-2978) or the Accessibility Services Center (phone: 402-554-3872). UCTEMPQ718.
Honors students hail from 14 states and 44 Nebraska counties.

44% of Honors students live on campus.

1 in 4 first-year Honors students are first-generation.

2020-2021 Graduates

- 46% entered the workforce
- 36% entered graduate school
- 18% entered professional school

"My favorite classes and the biggest breath of fresh air I received during the semester were the Honors classes I got to take outside of my required degree classes." - Adele Kanley, Computer Science

"[The] pedagogical environment was excellent and I appreciated that it was facilitated in alignment with the Honors mission." - Dalton Meister, Social Work