What is a Colloquium?

Colloquia are interdisciplinary courses offered by the University Honors Program, engaging students to develop out of the box critical thinking and writing skills. Colloquia often carry general education credits.

*What are “Other Honors Credits”?

15 Honors credits are needed for Honors transcript and diploma recognition for those students transferring into the Honors program. 9 of those credits are obtained by completing the 2 Honors colloquia and Honors thesis/capstone/practicum course (major course options are available here too). The remaining 9 credits can be obtained in many ways, including:

- Contracts
- Additional Honors courses
- Internship
- Study Abroad

Other Important Information

All incoming students are required to take an Honors course in their first semester in the Honors Program

- Students must earn a B or higher in a course to earn Honors credit
- All students will create a portfolio of their efforts by their last semester. It must attest to their achievements in Undergraduate Research, Community Engagement, and Campus Citizenship
- Students are expected to undertake at least one Honors course/option each semester at UNO; students may sit out of Honors for ONE semester without losing Honors priority registration privileges
- Students may undertake up to 2 contract options each semester
