

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

SEPTEMBER 13 - 17, 2021

CONSTITUTION DAY

Constitution Week is the commemoration of America's most important document and is celebrated annually in September. The United States Constitution stands as a testament to the tenacity of Americans throughout history to maintain their liberties, freedoms, and inalienable rights. Join us this week in learning more about the US Constitution!

Library Display

All Week

Criss Library

Stop by and check out the Library cases to learn about the Constitution and topics including free speech and censorship associated with the First Amendment. Physical copies of Constitution booklets will be available to take.

Trivia and Reflection

Thursday, September 16th

12 PM - 1:30 PM

Near the Bell Tower

Come think about how the Constitution written in 1778 continues to shape our society today. There will be trivia questions for candy, a reflection art piece, and a raffle for a grand prize!
