

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH CONCENTRATION IN SECONDARY EDUCATION

To earn a B.S. from the College of Education with a double major in Secondary Education (Secondary English 7-12 Endorsement) and English, along with Nebraska State Certification to teach in this area, you must:

1. Fulfill all General Education requirements for the College of Education (not for the College of Arts and Sciences).
2. Successfully complete all Education and Teacher Education requirements for the Secondary Education major with Secondary English 7-12 endorsement, including TED 4600: Clinical Practice (Student Teaching).
3. Complete 36 credit hours in English with grades of C or above (this is different from the English Department's requirement of a minimum grade of C- or above). To fulfill the requirements of the "Secondary English Teaching" concentration you must take the following courses:

_____ Either English 2410 (Critical Approaches to Literature) or English 2420 (Critical Approaches to Language Studies)

_____ One of the following: English 2310 (Introduction to English Literature I) or English 2320 (Introduction to English Literature II).

_____ Either English 2450 (American Literature to 1865) or English 2460 (American Literature Since 1865)

_____ Either English 4060 (American Novel) or English 4960 (Teaching British Literature); other 4960 Special Topics courses do not satisfy this requirement

_____ One of the following: English 2250 (Short Story), English 2260 (Black Short Story), English 2280 (Introduction to Language), English 2470 (Native American Literature), English 2490 (Latino/a Literature), or English 4250 (Introduction to Women's Studies in Literature)

_____ One of the following: English 3100 (Native American Literature); English 3280/90 (Irish Literature), English 4250 (Introduction to Women's Studies in Literature), or English 4260 (Women of Color)

_____ All of the following: English 4750 (Composition Theory), English 4860 (Modern Familiar Essay), and English 4340 (Shakespeare)

_____ Three additional electives in English (from any concentration area) at the 3000-4000 level (Note: Students can take English 4960 multiple times as long as they are on different Special Topics)
