This special topics course explores how English grammar functions as a resource (not rules!) for making texts & making meaning. You’ll discover your full potential for critical analysis of all kinds as you learn to apply SFL understandings of language & language use to texts and your own writing!

This ain’t your grandpa’s grammar! No formal background in linguistics or grammar is required! Suitable for students in all areas, including Language Arts, TESOL, Literary Studies, Linguistics, & Composition.

coming this spring, 2016
REGISTER FAST, SEATING IS LIMITED!