

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

Public Health, Incarceration and COVID

Join us as we discuss the critical issues involved when incarceration meets pandemic, in this case COVID 19. How are the incarcerated affected? How does the correctional system respond? What are the implications for the larger community? What do we have the potential to learn from all this in terms of providing appropriate resources and supporting beneficial legislation? Enter the crossfire of debate. Join us for this stimulating intellectual journey as we try to probe and learn more about this important juxtaposition of people, prisons, pandemic, and pedagogy.
