ID: international dialogue
a multidisciplinary journal of world affairs

Contents

VOLUME 9 NOVEMBER 2019

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR 1

ARTICLES

Institutionalized Violence in the History of Mind/Body Dualism and the Contemporary Reality of Slavery and Torture: Reflections on Elaine Scarry and The Body in Pain
Wendy Lynne Lee 6

Using Bourdieu to Answer Spivak: On the Study of Historical Subaltern Religious Practices
Curtis Hutt 38

REVIEW ESSAYS

Rethinking Secularism: P. Harrison, É. Balibar, T. Asad
Sotiris Mitralexis 56

Technology, Science, and “Post-Humanity”
Edward Sankowski and Betty J. Harris 64

The Elephant in the Room
Peter Stone 85

BOOK REVIEWS

Olga Bertelsen (ed) Revolution and War in Contemporary Ukraine: The Challenge of Change
Emma Mateo 98
Verena Erlenbusch-Anderson  Genealogies of Terrorism: Revolution, State Violence, Empire
Wendy Lynne Lee 103

Wael B. Hallaq  Restating Orientalism: A Critique of Modern Knowledge
Katlin Marisol Sweeney 113

Kia Lindroos and Frank Möller  Art as a Political Witness
Lenore Metrick-Chen 117

Alison McQueen  Political Realism in Apocalyptic Times
Gonzalo Bustamante Kuschel 124

Wendy Pearlman and Boaz Atzili  Triadic Coercion: Israel’s Targeting of States That Host Nonstate Actors
Richard English 132

BOOK NOTE

Giorgio Agamben  The Omnibus Homo Sacer and What is Philosophy?
Sotiris Mitralexis 135

PANEL DISCUSSION

Are Reparations Possible? Lessons to the United States from South Africa
Richard Goldstone, Lewis Gordon, and Alecia Anderson 138