

2019 JOHN TRUDELL DISTINGUISHED LECTURE IN NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES

“NATIVE AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS & CIVIL RIGHTS EXPERIENCE IN THE U.S.”

BOOK SIGNING TO FOLLOW LECTURE

WALTER R. ECHO-HAWK

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 2019 – 5:30PM

MAGNOLIA HOTEL BALLROOM, DOWNTOWN OMAHA

Walter Echo-Hawk is a Pawnee Nation citizen, who has served as an attorney, Tribal judge, author, activist, historian, and law professor. Since 1973, he has represented Native nations on critical legal issues, such as treaty rights, water rights, religious freedom, prisoner rights, and repatriation rights with the Native American Rights Fund. His career spans the pivotal years when Indian Tribes reclaimed their land, sovereignty, and pride in a stride toward freedom. He was instrumental in the passage of landmark federal legislation including the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (1990) and amendments to the Native American Religious Freedom Act (1994). He is the author of many articles and books on the subject of Indigenous rights including: Sea of Grass: A Family Tale from the American Heartland (2019); In The Light of Justice: The Rise of Human Rights in Native America and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (2013); In The Courts of the Conqueror: The 10 Worst Indian Law Cases Ever Decided (2010); and Battlefields and Burial Grounds: The Indian Struggle to Protect Ancestral Graves in the United States (1996).

LECTURE IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC & INCLUDES LIGHT REFRESHMENTS
