

Women's Rights in Islam: The Quranic Perspective

Azizah al-Hibri

Emeritus Professor of Law at University of Richmond

Thursday, March 6, 2014

7:00-8:30 pm

Thompson Alumni Center

Azizah Y. al-Hibri is the founding editor of Hypatia: a Journal of Feminist Philosophy, and founder and president of KARAMAH: Muslim Women Lawyers for Human Rights. In June 2011, al-Hibri was appointed by President Barack Obama to serve as a commissioner on the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom.

This event is co-sponsored by UNO Islamic Studies Program, Women's Resource Center, and Women's and Gender Studies Program

For questions, contact Dr. Ramazan Kilinc at rkilinc@unomaha.edu or 402-554-2683