

OLLAS
CHARLA
SERIES

THURSDAY

November 10, 2011

2:00-3:30pm

Thompson Alumni Center
Centennial Hall

Cuauhtémoc Cárdenas

Mexico's Current Political Climate & Issues in U.S.-
Mexico Relations

Cuauhtémoc Cárdenas, a prominent Mexican politician, was the front-runner during the controversial elections of 1988, which inaugurated a new political era. He was Governor of the state of Michoacán (1980-1986), Mayor of Mexico City (1997-1999) and the founder of the Party of the Democratic Revolution (PRD). He will discuss Mexico's current political climate and relationship with the U.S. He is the author of a new autobiography, Sobre Mis Pasos. The talk is part of the OLLAS Charla series.

This charla is free and open to the public.

Complementary Spanish-English translation is available.

Support for this event provided by:

