

PROTEST AND CHANGE IN VENEZUELA & BEYOND: CURRENT HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES IN LATIN AMERICA

Tuesday, February 11, 2020

12:00 - 1:00 PM

CEC Rm 230 - 231

Lunch will be provided - Free and open to the public

Multiple countries in Latin America have experienced massive protests and/or change in governance in the last year, with significant human rights implications. This forum will help attendees understand what is happening now in Venezuela and elsewhere, from UNO faculty with expertise in political and social issues in Latin America.

Co-sponsored by the Goldstein Center for Human Rights, the Office of Latino/Latin American Studies, and the UNO Chapter of the United Nations Student Association.

MODERATOR

DR. LAURA ALEXANDER

Assistant Professor,
Religious Studies & Goldstein Family
Community Chair in Human Rights

SPEAKERS

DR. CRISTIÁN DOÑA - REVECO

OLLAS Director
Associate Professor,
Dept. of Sociology/Anthropology

DR. BRETT KYLE

Assistant Professor,
Dept. of Political Sciences and OLLAS faculty

For more information: Angela Brown - angelambrown@unomaha.edu