1.0 Course description information

1.1 Catalog description: The purpose of this course is to study and analyze cross-cultural social work practice with Latino populations. Students will learn what factors impact Latino communities and what skill sets are essential for diverse social work practice.

1.2 Prerequisites of the course:
Undergraduate: SOWK 3320 prior to or concurrent.
Graduate: SOWK 8130 prior to or concurrent, or BSW degree.

1.3 Overview of content and purpose of the course: The purpose of this course is to prepare the student for cross cultural social work practice with Latinos across the lifespan (specifically Mexican American, Cuban, and Puerto Rican populations). It is important to acquire skills in understanding people of color experiences, what factors affect Latino communities, and gain an ability to evaluate social work practice and intervention approaches toward empowerment of people of color client systems.

1.4 Unusual circumstances for the course: This course is offered as SOWK 4030 for undergraduate students. This course is offered as SOWK 8036 for graduate students.

2.0 Course justification information

2.1 Anticipated audience/demand:
Undergraduate: This course meets the requirements for minority or social work elective, and is intended for upper division undergraduate social work students.
Graduate: This course is a social work elective in the MSW program.

2.2 Indicate how often this course will be offered and the anticipated enrollment:
This course is expected to be offered on a rotating basis – usually once every 1-2 years.
Undergraduate: Enrollment is anticipated to be 20 students.
Graduate: Enrollment is anticipated to be 5 students.

2.3 If it is a significant change to an existing course, please explain why it is needed: The course description and course objectives have been revised to meet accreditation standards. Course objectives and assignments are now linked with CSWE EPAS competencies and practice behaviors. The bibliography has also been updated.

3.0 Objective information

3.1 List of performance objectives stated in learning outcomes in a student’s perspective:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:
1. Evaluate the differential experiences of Latinos in the United States within the context of social work practice.
2. Describe assessment and intervention techniques with Latinos across the life span perspective through the use of analytical/social/environmental models from a social work perspective.
3. Analyze social work practice issues as related to the historical, political, economic, and psychological experiences of Latino client systems.

5.0 Teaching methodology information

5.1 Methods: The course will be taught in seminar fashion, lecture, case study evaluations and group-work format. Video tapes, films, guest lecturers and some class meetings may be held at local agencies in South Omaha.

5.2 Student role: Students will be expected to participate in class discussion and exercises. Thus, class attendance is mandatory. Evaluation will consist of a consideration of the student's performance on assignments and class participation.
in discussions and exercises. No laptop usage in class, turn off cell phones, place on vibrate if you must receive calls with regard to work related issues.

6.0 Evaluation information

6.1 Describe the typical types of student projects that will be the basis for evaluating student performance:

A. Cultural Awareness Exercise: Following the format of the Cultural Awareness Exercise, an ethnicity and identity handout will be given. Students will complete this exercise as it pertains to themselves and their families. If unable to trace family origins, the student has the option to develop a paper based on cultural awareness of "self." 5 page minimum. (5%)
B. Film Review: There are a number of films available that present Latino ethnicities and issues in a cultural fashion. You will be given a list of questions to answer regarding the film. The questions will include analyzing and assessing cultural characteristics of some of the characters and examining how social work practice could/should emerge. Films to be announced. (10%)
C. Latino Interview: Students will interview a United States born Latino. If there are Latino students in class, they will not be considered as interviewees. The format of this interview will be discussed in greater detail in the class. The approach is qualitative, utilizing open ended questions to allow informant to discuss "key issues" which are (perhaps) related to their ethnic identification. 7 pages minimum. (25%)
D. Four Quizzes: Over the text, guest speakers, films, class materials, discussions and articles. (40%)

In addition to the above:
Graduates: Research Paper: 15-20 pages, APA style, 15-20 references. Presentation to class. Topic to be discussed with professor. (20%)
Undergraduates: Community Engagement. Student will attend 2 community meetings, symposia, lectures, etc. in the community regarding information about Latino populations. The student will write two reports-2-3 pages of each engagement (10% each paper = 20% total)

6.2 Describe the typical basis for determining the final grade (e.g. weighting of various student projects):

- Cultural Awareness Exercise: 5%
- Film Review: 10%
- Latino Interview: 25%
- Quizzes: 40%
- Research or community engagement: 20%
- TOTAL: 100%

6.3 Grading type:

A+ = 98% or above
C+ = 78 to 80.9%
A = 94 to 97.9%
A- = 91 to 93.9%
B+ = 88 to 90.9%
B = 84 to 87.9%
B- = 81 to 83.9%
C = 74 to 77.9%
C- = 71 to 73.9%
D+ = 68 to 70.9%
D = 64 to 67.9%
D- = 61 to 63.9%
F = 60.9% and below

7.0 Resource material information

8.0 Other information

8.1 Accommodations statement
Reasonable accommodations are provided for students who are registered with UNO Disability Services and make their requests sufficiently in advance. For more information, contact UNO Disability Services (EAB 117, Phone: 554-2872, TTY: 554-3799) or go to the website: www.unomaha.edu/disability

8.2 Plagiarism/academic integrity
In this course, you will submit written work in which you make use of information and ideas found in print or online sources. Whenever you use material from another writer, it is important that you quote or paraphrase appropriately and cite the source. Never let it appear that ideas and information gleaned from other sources are your own.

The UNO Academic Integrity policy defines plagiarism as “presenting the work of another as one’s own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source) and submitting . . . academic work in whole or in part as one’s own when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person.”

Failure to cite sources appropriately is plagiarism, a serious academic offense. Plagiarized work will not be accepted. Consequences for plagiarism are up to the discretion of the instructor; they may range, for example, from rewriting all or part of a paper to a grade of F for the course. Students who plagiarize more than once are subject to disciplinary action, which may include expulsion from the university.

UNO Faculty Senate, March, 2010
Additional note on plagiarism/academic integrity from the UNO School of Social Work:

The School of Social Work views plagiarism as a very serious offense. The NASW Code of Ethics includes a high value on integrity and the importance of behaving in a trustworthy manner (see NASW Code of Ethics, www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/default.asp, 4.04 and 4.08). In addition, the Publication Manual of the APA (2010) states, “Researchers do not claim the words and ideas of another as their own; they give credit where credit is due. Quotation marks should be used to indicate the exact words of another. Each time you paraphrase another author, you need to credit the source in the text” (p. 15).

The School of Social Work will hold a Level 2 or 3 Student Review for any student who is alleged to have plagiarized or cheated in any of their academic courses.

8.3 Procedures regarding student grades/papers

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 requires that student grades not be published in a personally identifiable fashion. Therefore, unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor, students must provide a self-addressed adequately stamped envelope for papers, projects, or exams that were not returned to them in class. Any remaining papers, projects or exams will be kept by the instructor for 3 months after the semester ends, at which time they will be shredded.
