

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA OMAHA(UNO) AND MUNROE-MEYER INSITUTE (MMI) APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS MASTER'S PROGRAM INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS

JOIN US TO LEARN ABOUT..

- The UNO/MMI ABA master's program courses, research, and fieldwork
- What you can do with the degree/certification
- Tips and steps for applying

WHEN AND WHERE...

- Monday, 11/13 6:00 PM CST
 - Munroe-Meyer Institute Warren Sanger Conference Room B
- Friday 11/17 9:00 AM CST
 - University of Nebraska Omaha Arts and Sciences Hall Room 347Y
- Or you join one of the sessions via Zoom at <https://unomaha.zoom.us/j/4431178346>

UNO/MMI ABA Program Mission

The University of Nebraska Omaha and Munroe Meyer Institute Applied Behavior Analysis Program's mission is to graduate students who have met high levels of academic excellence in clinical and research skills in behavior analysis. The ABA Program trains students to provide person-centered, culturally responsive, and collaborative services for individuals across the lifespan, including those with neurodevelopmental disabilities, to promote behavioral health outcomes.

For more information please contact:

- Dr. Mark Shriver: mshriver@unmc.edu
- Dr. Sara Kupzyk: skupzyk@unomaha.edu

Scan to learn more about the program

