

SECTION 504 ACCOMMODATION PLANS

Ensuring that every student has the opportunity to succeed!

ABOUT 504 PLANS

- 504 plans are formal plans developed by schools to give individuals the accommodations they may need to succeed and learn!
- Accommodations could include visual aids, extended test times, a home-school note, and medication administration.
- The plans can be created for accommodations at schools, colleges, and workplaces
- The plans are part of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act.

WHAT ARE THEY?

WHO ARE THEY FOR?

- A person who has a disability that limits a major life activity may qualify.
- Disabilities including anxiety, asthma, autism, depression, dyslexia, epilepsy, and type 1 diabetes may qualify a child for a 504 plan.

- Guidelines state that a plan should be created by people familiar with the child and understand the data and options available.
- This could include teachers, school administrators, school psychologists, and parents.

WHO MAKES THE PLAN?

WHAT ARE THEY SUPPOSED TO DO?

- 504 plans are designed to help the student to succeed alongside their peers while receiving an education!
- This could include visual aids, extended test times, and behavior intervention plans.
- The accommodations allow them an equal opportunity to participate in academic and extracurricular activities.

MORE QUESTIONS?

Visit these websites for additional information!

<https://www.greatschools.org/gk/articles/section-504-2/>

<https://www.understood.org/en/school-learning/special-services/504-plan/what-is-a-504-plan>

This infographic was created by Zachary Wielgos as part of the Interdisciplinary Behavioral Consultation Program at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

The program is funded by a grant from the Department of Education. However, those contents do not necessarily represent the views or opinions of UNO or the policy of the Department of Education, and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government.