

Pearl Blizek Lecture in Religion and Art

Frightening the Frightful: Grotesque Visages in Iron Age Cyprus

Dr. Erin Walcek Averett

Associate Professor of Archaeology at Creighton University

Free public lecture sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies that explores the rich tradition of grotesque and monstrous imagery in Iron Age Cyprus, ca 1100-400 BCE, which flourished in the age of the city kingdoms when it was used to avert evil forces by the Cypriot kings and beyond.

Wednesday April 6, 2:30-3:30pm
Community Engagement Center, Room 201