

UNO Religious Studies

presents

The Rabbi Sidney and Jane Brooks Lecture

“Believing Alone: Religious Liberty in America”

by

Alan Potash

Jewish Federation Chief Executive Officer

Thursday, September 29, 2016

7:00 P.M.

The Thompson Center

6705 Dodge St, Omaha, Ne

Alan Potash is the CEO of the Jewish Federation of Omaha. A native Omahan, Alan received a BA from Southern Illinois University and a MA from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. Prior to taking on the leadership of the Federation, Potash served as Regional Director of the Plains States Region of the Anti-Defamation League / Community Relations Committee of the JFO from 2015-2016. From 2003-2006, he was the ADL Community Director in Austin, Texas. Alan is an artist, educator and traveler at heart. He is an award winning artist and film maker. He has spent time teaching, working and exploring in the United States, Europe, Taiwan and Israel. He and his wife Amy are the parents of twins.

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Omaha

The University of Nebraska is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution AA/EEO institution.

For special needs or assistance please call/contact 402 554-2628 (TTY 554-3799) or stop by ASH 205.