Women's & Gender Studies (WGS) Major

33 credit hours

Life experience, curiosity, and career goals are among the reasons you might pursue the WGS major. An array of upper-division course choices means that you can tailor your studies to your interests and goals. Graduates serve women, families, and queer youth; work for non-profit organizations; and many others.

Gender & Leadership Certificate

12+ credit hours

In this structured and focused program, you'll begin by learning about yourself. What kind of leader do you want to be? You'll continue to develop your leadership skills as you learn leadership theory and application through service learning in this entirely online certificate. Earn alongside any major.

WGS Minor

18 credit hours

A great complement to any major, this minor enables you to bring WGS "in" to your major program of study. Your choice among WGS electives means your minor will be uniquely yours. Graduates are employed in education, politics and non-profit work.

LGBTQ/Sexuality Studies Minor

12+ credit hours

Passionate about lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and sexuality studies? Learn from this flexible program while you earn the credential, and use it to serve your community when you graduate. Contact Jay Irwin (jirwin@unomaha.edu) for advising and information.
