Concentration/Minor:

For Non-School of Communication majors: Students whose major is outside the School of Communication must complete 18 credit hours in CMST courses, which must include 12 credit hours of upper-level (3000-4000) courses. All CMST classes, except courses used to complete the Oral Communication equivalency, can count toward the minor.

Journalism & Media Communication majors: Students whose major is Journalism and Media Communication may earn a minor in Communication Studies by completing 12 credit hours of upper level courses. This is in addition to 6 credits of CMST courses already required for the Journalism & Media Communication major.
