

*AMERNET STRING QUARTET
OMAHA RESIDENCY
APRIL 8 - 10, 2016*

April 8: 9 AM to noon School Performance

Music students from four area Omaha Public School High Schools will spend the morning at the Strauss Performing Arts Center on the campus of the University of Nebraska at Omaha for a presentation and performance given by the Amernet String Quartet. Complementary tickets will be given to all participating OPS students to attend the concert at UNO on April 9th at 7:30pm.

Open to the Public

April 8: 4:30 to 6:30pm MasterClasses

Masterclasses at the Omaha Conservatory of Music: 20 Conservatory string students will work with members of the Amernet in four concurrent masterclasses. A question and answer session and short performance will end the afternoon's events. Complementary tickets will be given to participating students to attend the concert at UNO on April 9th at 7:30pm.

Open to students of the Omaha Conservatory of Music and their families

April 9: All Day Chamber Music Clinic at UNO

9 am to 3 pm: A full day of exciting chamber music shared by pre-formed student chamber ensembles. Ensembles from the 8th grade and through college age level are welcome to participate. Several chamber music coachings will be given throughout the day by members of the Amernet String Quartet and top local chamber professionals.

Participation by Registration

3 pm to 4 pm: a presentation given by the Amernet for all participants and the public.

Open to the Public

4 pm to 5 pm: a masterclass with selected student ensembles will end the chamber clinic events.

Open to the Public

Complementary tickets to attend the Amernet String Quartet's concert at UNO will be given to student participants of the chamber clinic*

April 9: 7:30 to 9:00 pm Amernet String Quartet in Concert

The Amernet String Quartet will perform on the Petite Musique Concert Series at the University of Nebraska at Omaha's Strauss Performing Arts Center. Tickets available at the door. $10 for single ticket; $5 student and senior discount.

Open to the Public

April 10: 11:30 am to 12:00 pm Concert Preview at Temple Israel

A short presentation and performance given by the Amernet String Quartet for the congregation at Temple Israel, sharing their music and encouraging listeners to attend the full concert at the Jewish Community Center in the evening. The performance will take place in the Community Court at Temple Israel, 13111 Sterling Ridge Drive, Omaha.

Open to the Public

April 10: 7:00pm Concert at Jewish Community Center

Amernet String Quartet concert at the Jewish Community Center; free and open to the public, thanks to sponsorship from the Sokolof Javitch Music Fund. Participants in other residency activities are encouraged to attend: OPS students, Omaha Conservatory masterclass participants and attendees, Clinic participants, Petite Musique audience members, and Temple Israel congregants.

The Amernet will perform a program selected from the vast body of works for string quartet composed during the Holocaust, in many cases actually in the Terezin camp.

Open to the Public

The Amernet String Quartet's residency is brought to the greater Omaha community through a collaboration of

University of Nebraska at Omaha
Omaha Chamber Music Society
Omaha Conservatory of Music
Omaha Area Youth Orchestras

With generous support from the Nebraska Arts Council, the Whitmore Charitable Trust, the Sokolof Javitch Music Fund and the William R. Patrick Foundation

*For additional information, contact Stacie Haneline, Instructor at University of Nebraska at Omaha and Executive Director of the Omaha Chamber Music Society.
shaneline@unomaha.edu 402-554-5897*