

Student Council for Exceptional Children (SCEC)

SCEC is an organization that is dedicated to improving the educational success of children with disabilities. The student chapter is associated with the International Council for Exceptional Children and focuses on supporting and volunteering in the local community with individuals with disabilities.

SCEC is looking for students at UNO who would like to be a part of this dynamic organization.

Member Benefits:

- Association with the International Council of Exceptional Children
- Connecting with other students in the education field (or other fields)
- Attending community events that support individuals with disabilities
- Provides opportunities for service and community engagement

If you or someone you know would like the opportunity to be a part of an organization that serves individuals with disabilities by engaging in fun, interactive events, then plan to join us for our first informational meeting.

You will find out how to join SCEC and learn about few of our upcoming events suchas Step Up (Down Syndrome Alliance)

*For more information check out our page on the Special Education and Communication Disorders page <https://www.unomaha.edu/college-of-education-health-and-human-sciences/special-education-communication-disorders/student-involvement/scec.php>

Contacts:

Dr. Beth Leader-Jansen eleaderjanssen@unomaha.edu

Dr. Lisa Epp lepp@unomaha.edu