ABSTRACT

Any investigator can “wing it” through the IRB submission process. Often times, this results in misunderstandings in the process, avoidable errors and lengthy review letters. Join the representatives from the IRB as they explain the various aspects of the IRB process and discuss ways to minimize avoidable issues with IRB submissions.

ABOUT JENNIFER KUCERA

Jenny Kucera is responsible for IRB education, including CITI training, expedited and follow-up continuing reviews, outreach, accreditation and maintenance of the IRB website.

ABOUT SUSANNAH LOGSDON

Sue Logsdon is responsible for all compliance issues, submissions by the College of Dentistry, exercise related studies, human biological material (HBM), research, expedited continuing reviews and maintenance of the IRB electronic application.
