Library Science electives, minors

LIBRARY ELECTIVE OPTIONS: The classes listed below are fully online options for the following electives. Other classes may apply than those listed below, and we welcome you to submit other classes to your academic advisor or to Erica Rose for approval.

Technology: 3 hours

College of IS&T
- CIST 1300 Intro to Web development
- CIST 2100: Organizations, Application and Technology
- CIST 3110 IT Ethics

Journalism
- JMC 1500: Intro to Mass Communication
- JMC 4830: Technical Communication

Information Systems
- ISQA 2000: Special Topics, check for current semester's options

Human Relations: 12 hours
- Anthropology
- Black Studies
- Gerontology
- Foreign Language or Sign Language
- Latino/Latin American Studies
- Native American Studies
- Religion
- Sociology
- Woman and Gender Studies

Literacy: 12 hours
- English classes: 2000-level or above
- Communication Studies
- May sub 1 extra tech elective

LIBRARY MINOR OPTIONS: These UNO minors can be completed fully online. Read more about your options on UNO's Majors and Programs page, listed under the Academics tab at www.unomaha.edu

- Business for non-business majors
- Criminology and Criminal Justice
- Emergency Management
- Fire Service Management
- Anthropology
- Gerontology
- Management Information Systems
- Spanish
- Victimology and Victim Services
- Nonprofit Management
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Public Administration
- Religion
- Sociology
- Tribal Management and Emergency Services
- Cross-Sector Collaborative Leadership
- Computer Science

Academic Advising and Field Experience, College of Education, Health and Human Sciences
6001 Dodge Street, Roskens Hall 204 | Omaha, NE 68182 | 402.554.2717 | unocoeadvising@unomaha.edu
unomaha.edu