April 24, 2017

Happening NOW through FINALS, De-Stress Fest
- Lots of activities, free food, and giveaways all over campus
- Click the link above, check out the schedule, and find some time to unwind during the end of the semester rush!!

THURSDAY, April 26th, SCCJ Invited Lecture Series: Dr. Carol Archibald
- Studying the Police and Crime in the Bakken Oil Fields of North Dakota
- 3:00-4:30 CPACS 132

FUTURE EVENTS
- Participate in UNO’s Common Reader Program this Summer
  - The common reader program encourages a number of students and groups across the University to read the same book over the summer. Then in the fall, there are a number of opportunities to discuss the book with others who have read it.
  - This year’s pick, The Other Wes Moore: One Name, Two Fates, is likely to be of interest to SCCJ students. It explores the lives of two men, with similar backgrounds, but very different outcomes (one goes on to be a Rhodes scholar, a white house fellow and a writer and the other one serves life in prison). Maybe we can plan an SCCJ-specific discussion event in the fall (with pizza, of course!).

INTERNSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, ETC.
- Sign up now for your fall internship! We have had a number of professionals join us on campus this year and nearly every single one of them noted the benefits of internship participation. Contact your advisor or our intern supervisor, Dr. Meier, for more information. Now is the time to sign up for Fall.
- Are you interested in how we conduct research? Have you thought about graduate school someday? Consider applying for a Research Internship in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice. The opportunity is similar to a traditional internship except that you spend time working alongside graduate students and/or faculty members on active research projects. Want to know more? Email me at sclinkinbeard@unomaha.edu