Several students spent Friday afternoon touring the Federal Building and listening to various presentations by the US Marshals and others. It turned out to be a really cool experience for everyone.

THIS WEDNESDAY, April 12th, Juvenile Justice Career Panel
- Join us to hear about emerging career opportunities in the field of juvenile justice. We will be joined by a School Resource Officer, Director of the Juvenile Assessment Center, Director of the Juvenile Justice Institute, and a Division Chief from the Nebraska Crime Commission.
- 4:00 in CPACS 101 (note room change from previously advertised)

THIS FRIDAY, APRIL 14th, Dean Strang from Making a Murderer
- Have you watched Making a Murderer on Netflix? The Nebraska Federal Public Defender’s office is sponsoring a presentation from Stephen Avery’s attorney, Dean Strang, with additional remarks from David Stickman, Tom Riley, and Mike Nelson.
- CPACS 101 at 2:30

INTERNSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, ETC.
- Criminal Justice Student Organization (CJSO) Officers WANTED! Do you have good leadership and organizational skills? Do you want to get more involved and make connections in the field? If interested, email me for an application at sclinkinbeard@unomaha.edu. Applications due April 17th.
- Have you thought about an internship? We have had a number of professionals join us on campus this year and nearly every single one of them noted the benefits of internship participation. Contact your advisor or our intern supervisor, Dr. Meier, for more information. Now is the time to sign up for Fall.
- Are you interested in how we conduct research? Have you thought about graduate school someday? Consider applying for a Research Internship in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice. The opportunity is similar to a traditional internship except that you spend time working alongside graduate students and/or faculty members on active research projects. Want to know more? Email me at sclinkinbeard@unomaha.edu
