FINALS WEEK IS HERE! All of us at the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice want to say a big congratulations to our graduating seniors. We wish you the best in your future endeavors!

Happening NOW, De-Stress Fest

- Lots of activities, free food, and giveaways all over campus
- Click the link above to check out the schedule

FUTURE EVENTS

- Participate in UNO’s Common Reader Program this Summer
  - This year’s pick, The Other Wes Moore: One Name, Two Fates, is likely to be of interest to SCCJ students. It explores the lives of two men, with similar backgrounds, but very different outcomes (one goes on to be a Rhodes scholar, a white house fellow and a writer and the other one serves life in prison). Maybe we can plan an SCCJ-specific discussion event in the fall (with pizza, of course!).

INTERNSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, ETC.

- Sign up now for your fall internship! We have had a number of professionals join us on campus this year and nearly every single one of them noted the benefits of internship participation. Contact your advisor or our intern supervisor, Dr. Meier, for more information. Now is the time to sign up for Fall.
- Are you interested in how we conduct research? Have you thought about graduate school someday? Consider applying for a Research Internship in the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice. The opportunity is similar to a traditional internship except that you spend time working alongside graduate students and/or faculty members on active research projects. Want to know more? Email me at sclinkinbeard@unomaha.edu
