WHAT WE DO
The Criminal Justice Student Organization (CJSO) provides students with opportunities to learn more about the criminal justice system, to network with other students and faculty and to interact with individuals who are directly involved with the criminal Justice system. CJSO also provides students with opportunities to hold leadership positions and to participate in service to their communities. The organization typically meets monthly and is open to any UNO undergraduate student.

WHAT WE HAVE DONE RECENTLY
Tours of the Federal Courthouse, Nebraska Correctional Youth Facility, etc.
Speakers such as FBI, US Marshals, OPD, K-9 Unit, Attorneys, Prosecutors, Parole and Probation Officers.

COMING UP – SAVE THE DATE!!
August 30th – SCCJ Back-to-School Breakfast (8-9:45am) in CPACS 218
September 12th – CJSO Monthly Meeting – 4:00-5:00pm in CPACS 222
