

LONDON

Study Abroad Program

May 18 - June 2, 2024

Meet police officials and magistrates, attend lectures at solicitors' offices, visit high-security prisons, and witness court trials. But that's not all – you'll explore Windsor, Stratford-on-Avon, Warwick, and Cambridge. You can even opt for an excursion to Paris! Over 2,000 students have already made their mark.

Ready for this extraordinary adventure? Join us in London!

REGISTER

unomaha.via-trm.com

Students from the Lincoln campus will need to use their UNL email address when registering and will need to clarify they are from UNL.

Financial aid is available to qualified participants. Please direct questions to UNO's Office of Financial Support and Scholarship at 402.554.2327.

London Study Abroad Program 2024

Explore the fascinating world of criminal justice on an overseas journey that combines education and adventure.

- Observe the United Kingdom's Supreme Court
- Meet law enforcement personnel and engage in public order police activities
- Tour 19th Century Maximum Security Prisons
- Tour the Inns of Court
- Visit Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court and Old Bailey Crown Criminal Court
- Meet law enforcement personnel and engage in public order police activities
- Sightseeing activities including Windsor Castle, Westminster Abbey, Trafalgar Square, and day trips to Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwick Castle, and Cambridge
- Optional weekend in Paris, France

Travel and Accommodations

Round-trip transportation on a scheduled airline between Omaha and London. Ticketing through Fox World Travel allows participants to remain in Europe for a limited period following the tour for independent travel, however, extra charges will apply depending on the return date.

Unless otherwise stipulated, the group must travel together on the same flight(s) for the entire itinerary. Transportation between your hometown and departure city, as well as deviations from the group air schedule, may be subject to additional charges.

For information concerning non-group related travel arrangements, contact Kayla Kaupe at Fox World Travel at 920.236.8030, extension 1175.

Tickets are non-changeable and non-refundable.

Royal National Hotel, Russell Square, London

Tour Price

TO BE DETERMINED

INCLUDED: Round trip airfare from Omaha, room and partial board (as specified), all designated group transfers, insurance, and administrative costs.

A $200 application fee is due when applying for acceptance into the course and will be applied to final total upon entrance into class.

NOT INCLUDED: Passports, independent travel by public transport, incidental personal expenses such as laundry, unspecified meals, entertainment, etc.

Academic and Credit Requirements

Participants receive three semester hours of graded undergraduate credit in CRCJ4710/CRIM471 Comparative Criminal Justice Systems: England. Those wishing to receive full credit for the course must travel with the class to London, attend all academic activities, participate in discussions and complete a journal reflecting their experiences. (One may choose to audit the course but full tuition will be charged.)

Questions

For questions or more information email Dr. Mark Foxall at markfoxall@unomaha.edu or Jo Schooley at jschooley@unomaha.edu.