Join BHECN for a webinar on Basics of Sexuality and Sexual Health presented by Dr. Amanda Randall and Liam Heerten-Rodriguez, instructors at the Grace Abbott School of Social Work at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

This webinar is the first in a series of four webinars designed to provide mental health practitioners at all levels with introductory knowledge and practical strategies to comfortably address issues related to sexuality and gender within their existing practice. In this workshop, participants will be introduced to foundational concepts in sexuality and sexual health. Participants will gain basic knowledge, strategies, tools, and resources in order to increase their comfort in addressing issues of sexuality and sexual health in clinical practice.

Cost: Free

Who should attend? Physicians, nurses, advance practice providers, psychiatrists, physician assistants, psychologists, counselors, social workers and other behavioral health providers and trainees

To Register: http://bit.ly/2BoA2Ba

Continuing education credit will be available.

Presented by:

Dr. Amanda Duffy Randall is director of the UNO Grace Abbott School of Social Work. As an associate professor, she teaches clinical research and practice courses in the graduate program. Dr. Randall is a member of the Professional Transgender Resource Network and serves on the Advisory Council of the Behavioral Health Education Center of Nebraska.

Liam Heerten-Rodriguez is an instructor at the UNO Grace Abbott School of Social Work. Liam’s teaching and research interests focus on the intersections of sexuality and social justice, with an emphasis on marginalized and stigmatized sexualities. Liam is a Certified Sexuality Educator through the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors & Therapists (AASECT).