The University of Nebraska does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and/or political affiliation in its programs, activities, or employment. The University of Nebraska Omaha is committed to maintaining an environment for all students, faculty, staff, and visitors, that is fair and responsible – an environment that is based on one's ability and performance. The University of Nebraska Omaha declares and affirms a policy of equal education and employment opportunities, and non-discrimination in providing services to the public. The University of Nebraska Omaha prohibits sexual harassment, including sexual violence. This policy is applicable to all university administered programs including educational programs, financial aid, admission policies and employment policies. This policy is consistent with federal and state law and university policy.

Are Your Clients Satisfied?
Presented by: Jeanette Harder, Ph.D., CMSW and Daniel Kreuzberg
Thursday, September 24, 2020 | 1 P.M. – 3 P.M. (virtual)
Cost: $40 (includes 2 CEUs) | Click here to register for 09/24!
Client satisfaction surveys are notorious for low response rates. When we do get them back, the responses aren't always helpful. Let's talk about strategies for overcoming these trouble spots, and increasing the usefulness of survey responses. This interactive webinar will give you knowledge and skills to construct a satisfaction survey and a plan for administering it. We will also discuss ways to maximize the usefulness of results.

Choosing a Measurement Tool
Presented by: Jessica Groeneweg, LICSW and Lizeth Fraire
Tuesday, October 20, 2020 | 1 P.M. – 2 P.M. (virtual)
Cost: $25 (includes 1 CEU) | Click here to register for 10/20!
Finding a tool to measure client outcomes is tough! You need to consider what you want to measure and how you want to measure it, as well as how a diverse range of clients will react to it. Attendees will discover ways to find outcome measurement tools, learn about validity and reliability, and gain skills in choosing the right tool for your program.

Conducting a Needs Assessment
Presented by: Claire Rynearson, MPA, LICSW and Daniel Kreuzberg
Thursday, November 12, 2020 | 2 P.M. – 3 P.M. (virtual)
Cost: $25 (includes 1 CEU) | Click here to register for 11/12!
Identifying creative solutions requires organizations first to pinpoint and confirm community or agency needs. This interactive webinar will review the fundamentals of conducting a quality needs assessment. Attendees will learn strategies for assessing gaps between current and desired impact as well as how to best utilize those results.

Zoom information and handouts will be provided to all paid registrants two days prior to each webinar.

Questions? Contact Michelle Nelsen (mdnelsen@unomaha.edu)

The University of Nebraska does not discriminate based on race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, disability, age, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, and/or political affiliation in its programs, activities, or employment. The University of Nebraska Omaha is committed to maintaining an environment for all students, faculty, staff, and visitors, that is fair and responsible – an environment that is based on one’s ability and performance. The University of Nebraska Omaha declares and affirms a policy of equal education and employment opportunities, and non-discrimination in providing services to the public. The University of Nebraska Omaha prohibits sexual harassment, including sexual violence. This policy is applicable to all university administered programs including educational programs, financial aid, admission policies and employment policies. This policy is consistent with federal and state law and university policy.