Campus Updates

- New leadership:
 - Vice Chancellor for Student and Institution Strategic Success, Rich Klein
 - Chief Diversity Officer, A.T. Miller
- Health Safety/COVID-19
 - Continued loosening of health safety requirements (all driven by pandemic conditions)
 - Hoping to see continued relaxation of food policies throughout the spring
 - What does a return to more normal operations look like in the CEC? Share your thoughts in chat!
- Proposed Office of Community Engagement
 - Will move many campus engagement functions to the chancellor's office
 - Welcome, coordinate, support, measure, report, celebrate engagement at UNO

Affiliate Process

- Purpose – improved internet stability and network security for CEC building partners
- Process – converting all partners to NUGuest to UNO's EDUROAM wireless service. Steps include
 - complete a Docusign e-form
 - If your current MavCard number starts with 444, pick up a new MAVCard when instructed
 - connect with CEC IT for EDUROAM setup and printer reconfiguration
- Progress - most CEC Building partners have completed the process. Reminders will be sent out 3/7
- Printers – conversion is necessary for continued use of CEC printers after April
- Questions – contact Heike or Josh

Requesting Volunteers

- New form for CEC community building partners seeking volunteers or internships
- Form is now live with efforts to facilitate and promote these opportunities through key campus departments and in the building (digital screens coming soon)
- Located on our website at cec.unomaha.edu
 - Select "Get Involved" menu drop down
 - Select "Volunteers and Interns"
 - Select "Request Volunteers or Interns"
