I. Welcome/Introductions

II. New business

- a. Check-in: How's everyone doing? What do you need?
 - i. Suggestions/Needs:
 1. Roster of those in the building for easy contact; coordination with Parking for some events has been confusing; question about possibility of sharing parking stalls in Lot Q by building partner employees;
 2. Please route all parking questions to Dave at davidpeterson@unomaha.edu.
 - ii. How can the CEC support partners?
 1. Area-based conversations – CEC building partners expressed interest in this opportunity to support getting to know others and discussing partnership opportunities.
 1. Suggestions include: Community relations; Wellness; Criminal Justice Reform; Access to zoom accounts; Remote learning support and basic needs for families and students; At Risk/After/School/Persons with disabilities/Family Services; education; sustainability; using Zoom for the All Hands meeting to create opportunities to talk and work together in small groups; social media. Please send suggestions for specific topics to Heike at halangdon@unomaha.edu.
 2. Connecting to resources – Please make sure you are signed up for the Maverick Daily – a UNO e-newsletter that goes out daily. Please email Robyn at rloos@unomaha.edu to be added to this list if you are not already.
- b. Campus Strategic Investment Initiative
 - iii. Suggestions included looking at existing partnerships with UNO as ways to access this initiative; CEC building partners playing an active role in sharing what is happening with those involved in the initiative;
- d. Reservations process – following the campus changes, we have a new process for CEC reservations; the form form and COVID information is on the website. Please take time to review the Fall Forward website (see link below) to ensure you have the most updated information. For any questions about reservations during this time please email Dave at the email above.
