

Library Friends Distinguished Service Award Recipients

UNO LIBRARY FRIENDS

The UNO Library Friends' primary purpose is to support UNO Libraries. Members recognize the vital role the library plays in community service, learning, teaching, and research. They are committed to enriching the quality of UNO's library services and resources.

The UNO Library Friends support the library and its patrons, including students, faculty, staff, and community users, by contributing to library projects, increasing awareness and viability, and enhancing the libraries' image.

WHAT WE DO

Library Friends provide organizational and financial support for the library collections and services that are not available through public funding sources.

UNO Library Friends...

- Stimulate community awareness and use of the libraries
- Sponsor lectures, conferences, exhibits, or other public events that enrich the community's culture
- Provide recognition for outstanding services performed by library staff members and students.
- Provide volunteer assistance to library staff
- Purchase library materials
- Cultivate financial support for UNO libraries through annual signature event, Collections Uncorked, a wine dinner featuring an engaging program centered on great libraries and literature
