HUMAN LIBRARY

APRIL 9, 2019

Join UNO Libraries for the fifth-annual Human Library on April 9, 2019, from 4 to 7 P.M.

BE A HUMAN BOOK!

We are looking for people with interesting stories and unique lives to volunteer as Human Books. Anyone can be a book - applications are open for UNO students, staff, faculty, and community members.

Want to change a life by sharing your story? Fill out this short form. The deadline to apply is Tuesday, January 22, 2019.

WHAT IS THE HUMAN LIBRARY?

The Human Library brings together people who may not have met in different circumstances in order to dismantle prejudices and smash stereotypes.

It is an opportunity to have real conversations with real people. Individuals with diverse life experiences act as human books, and readers “check out” the human books for 20-30 minutes to learn and ask questions about the human book’s personal experiences.

Have questions or curious about sharing your story?
