SETTING THE CONTEXT FOR ADDRESSING BIAS IN THE CLASSROOM

WED., OCTOBER 4, 2017 | 1:00 P.M. | COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT CENTER 231

Civil, Safe, and Inclusive . . . three themes critical to embrace in today's higher education classrooms. The Center for Faculty Excellence is sponsoring a series of workshops and activities throughout this academic year to highlight strategies and promote dialogue for creating these environments at UNO.

What is bias and implicit bias? How might we recognize bias in ourselves and in our teaching and learning environments?

Join Kerry-Ann Escayg and Ferial Pearson from UNO's College of Education for discussion and reflection on implicit bias, self-awareness, and connections between bias and pedagogy.

This is the first of a series of activities that will include becoming more familiar with implicit bias self-assessment tests that can be used with students to promote awareness and consideration.
