

MICRO-AGGRESSION, MICRO-RESISTANCE, AND ALLY DEVELOPMENT

A WORKSHOP FOR ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP

MONDAY, MARCH 12 | 1 – 3 P.M. | CEC 231

What happens when we see or experience acts of bias and micro-aggression in the hallways of our departments or amongst our colleagues? What tools are available so that we might serve as allies to our colleagues?

Dr. Cynthia Ganote will lead this interactive workshop for Chairs and Directors where key concepts associated with micro-aggression will be defined and discussed. Micro-resistance strategies will be highlighted with activities used to demonstrate how to apply these strategies in the academic workplace.

Biography

Cynthia Ganote, Ph.D., is an Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology at Saint Mary's College of California. Her research focuses on race, class, gender, and sexual inequalities; feminist methods; critical and feminist pedagogies; and on approaches to community-based research.
