UCAT DESIGNATED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The University Committee for the Advancement of Teaching (UCAT) is pleased to announce this event is identified as a Designated Professional Development opportunity and is making available a limited number of professional development stipends to support faculty integrating information and strategies learned in this session into their own course(s).

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2018

11:00 A.M. – 12:30 P.M. | CRISS LIBRARY 249

The Enlightened Classroom

This workshop is specifically for instructors to provide tools for integrating mindfulness practices into their classrooms to enhance class participation, understanding of the texts, and discuss other hidden benefits. Attendees will also learn to cultivate the benefits of this practice in their own lives and careers.

Grant recipients are expected to attend the workshop and agree to present their work at a campus event in spring 2018.

The application and additional information for this Designated Professional Development grant is available on the CFE website at
