

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA

MILITARY AND VETERAN SERVICES

WHO WE ARE

Opened in April 2012, the Office of Military and Veteran Services (OMVS) at the University of Nebraska at Omaha supports student success by serving as a resource center on campus for current and prospective military, veteran, and dependent students. OMVS assists students by focusing on their wellness while enrolled, supporting and motivating achievement of educational goals through graduation, and providing career services and assistance.

ONE OF THE BEST...

Currently, UNO is ranked within the top ten most military friendly universities in the nation by 'Best for Vets' Magazine which is considered the most comprehensive assessment of military support in the nation. UNO currently serves around 1,700 military-affiliated students.
