

UNO Writing Center

The center's primary mission is to provide a place for writers to talk with writers about writing. We work with undergraduate and graduate students as well as staff and faculty from all courses and disciplines. Individual consultations with a trained writing consultant last 30 or 60 minutes (in-person or online). During that time, the consultant will answer questions, provide feedback, and coach writers through any stage of the writing process from brainstorming to final editing. Writing consultants assist writers with any of the following:

comprehending assignments	deciding on a topic
generating ideas	enhancing writing style
learning grammar and editing strategies	formatting documents (page numbers, title pages, etc.)
citing sources according to MLA, APA, Chicago, ASA, etc.	understanding different written forms/genres building confidence

Staff

Our staff consists of undergraduate consultants, graduate teaching assistants, post graduate consultants, retired faculty members, volunteers, and interns.

Locations and Hours (subject to change)

Arts and Sciences Hall (room 150)

Monday – Thursday 9:00am - 8:00pm
Friday 9:00am - noon

Criss Library (2nd floor lobby)

Monday-Thursday 1:00pm - 4:00pm
Sunday 1:00pm - 4:00pm

Mammel Hall (room 131)

Monday-Thursday 4:00pm - 7:00pm

UNMC (McGoogan Library)

Wednesday/Thursday 2:00pm-7:00pm

Graduate Student Services

The Office of Graduate Studies and the Writing Center partner to provide Graduate Consultants. Though these consultants' focus is on graduate level work, all of our consultants are trained to work with writers at any level. Graduate Consultants are identified by an * next to their names in our online schedule.

Workshops

We offer a variety of workshops on topics of interest to the university writing community. Topics include: thesis/dissertation strategies, grammar/punctuation, writer's block, writing tools/technology, revision, citation, working from feedback, peer response, etc.

UNO Writing Center

Faculty/Staff Info

Created by G. Travis Adams
and
Kathy Radosta

Updated July, 2018

6001 Dodge Street
Arts & Sciences Hall, Room 150
University of Nebraska at Omaha
Omaha, NE 68182

402-554-2946
writingcenter.unomaha.edu

UNO Writing Center Information

To request a workshop for your class, program, department, etc. contact Dr. Travis Adams gtadams@unomaha.edu

Boot Camp

Through a partnership with UNO Graduate Studies, we host a thesis/dissertation boot camp intended to help graduate students make significant progress on this major writing project. Boot Camp is held one Saturday morning each month of the semester; breakfast and coffee are provided. Contact us or see our website for more information.

Orientations

We offer 15-20 minute in-class, in-center, and online orientations as a way to inform students about our services. Orientations are available to anyone teaching classes at UNO. To schedule an orientation, either fill out the form on our website or contact us directly.

Faculty Services

In addition to orientations and workshops, the UNO Writing Center is here to support faculty in the teaching of writing and with their own writing. Faculty are encouraged to use the center, just as students do. Faculty writing is also supported by a week-long writing event, Camp Completion, held in May.

Faculty with questions about teaching writing in their classes should contact Dr. Adams who also serves as UNO's WAC/WID coordinator. He is happy to share, model, or help develop strategies for teaching writing in all disciplines. Email Dr. Adams at gtadams@unomaha.edu

More Information

Stop by, email, call, or visit our website

UNO Writing Center

Faculty/Staff Info

Created by G. Travis Adams
and
Kathy Radosta

Updated July, 2018

6001 Dodge Street
Arts & Sciences Hall, Room 150
University of Nebraska at Omaha
Omaha, NE 68182

402-554-2946
writingcenter.unomaha.edu